Hard worker. Very reliable. fast learner. Hands on type of person, I like to jump right into whatever it is I need to learn. I have been a certified home health aide for almost 2 years now, I've been doing care giver and home care work for going on 5. I'm very dependable, I love to work and I love what I do. I moved back to Massachusetts from Florida 1 year ago in August so my hours currently are open. I also am a certified MedTech. I also have years of experience in Waitressing, I've been actively working since I was 15 years old.

Authorized to work in the US for any employer
